Hamburg, May 24.

LETTERS from Stockholm of the 16th Instant bring Advice, that the Peace between Sweden and Denmark is judged there very near concluded; that Major-General Lewenhögen having received an Express from Copenhagen, has renewed his Conferences with the Swedish Ministers; and that the Danish Court has made an Abatement in their Pretension of a Million and 200000 Crowns, and that Sweden offers now 500000, as an Equivalent for Stralsund, Rugen, and Marstrand, on which Point the last Resolutions of the King of Denmark are expected.

London, May 25.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from France of Saturday.

From the Gazette a la-Main.

Paris, June 1. On the 29th past in the Morning, Payment was stop'd at the Bank, and Commissaries were sent thither to put a Seal upon the Coffers: On the 30th the Seals were taken off, and they began to take an Account of the Species in Cash. On the 31st publick Notice was given, that this Day Payment should begin again. On the 29th, M. Law went to resign to the Duke Regent the Employment of Comptroller General of the Finances, and on the 30th he had two Swiss Officers given him for his Guard. Several Commissaries have been appointed for inspecting M. Law's Accounts; among others, M. Pelletier, and M. Fagon, Councillours of State; M. Trudaine, Provost of the Merchants; M. d'Alligre, and M. Portail, Presidents of Mortier; and four Councillours of Parliament; the Abbots Minguet and Pignatelli, M. de la Fosse, and another. On the 31st was published an Arrêt of the King's Council of State, proroguing to the 1st of July next the lowering of the new Species, ordained by the Declaration of the 11th of March last for the 1st of June; and making current the ancient Gold and Silver Species in Proportion to the new Species: The same Arrêt ordains, that Bullion shall be received at the Mint-Offices without any Benefit for his Majesty, the Mark of Gold at the Rate of 1237 Livres 10 Sols, and of Silver at 82 Livres 10 Sols: And his Majesty permits to his Subjects and others to import into the Kingdom such Gold and Silver Species and Bullion as they think fit, without being obliged to pay any Duties.
